BOARD ADVISORS APPOINTED TO SOUTH-EAST ASIAN TOURISM ORGANISATION

The Board of Management of the South-East Asian Tourism Organisation today announced the appointment of a number of Advisors to the board who will help it into the future.

“While the Board of Management is particularly skilled in the operation of tourism in the region, they felt that they needed support from practitioners with particular skills and experience,” Mr Robert Johnston SEATO Secretariat Director said.

The new Advisors to the SEATO Board of Management will include:

Dr Nguyen Duong
Dr Penny Blake
Professor Celeste Ulep
Dr Robin MacDonald

“These new advisors bring with them the latest developments in tourism and will help SEATO to achieve its objectives”, Mr Johnston said.

The Advisors will participate in the inaugural meeting of the Board to take place in Kuala Lumpur in January 2010.
